

Kansas City Weavers Guild Minutes-December 10, 2015

Rose Room of Loose Park, 5200 Wornall, KCMO

Becky Stevens, President, called the meeting to order at 10:00 a.m.

An abbreviated business meeting was held prior to the Christmas Party.

Carolyn Budd gave the treasurers report with the following balances:

Operating Fund	$1,955.61
Workshops	$ 131.20
Scholarship Fund	$1,521.52
Library Acc.	$ 372.08
Equity	$3,416.93

Becky Stevens passed around the signup sheet for refreshments for the 2016 meetings.

Jacqueline Jacobson reported on the Napkin Exchange program. There is no deadline to signup. All napkins must be completed by July. Additional details are in the Newsletter.

Linda Stoker is a member of the State Line Rug Hookers Guild. They are sponsoring a raffle for a rug and a runner to benefit the Children's Mercy liver transplant program. The designs are based on the children's art from the hospital. Raffle tickets are $5 for one and $10 for three. The drawing will be held at the Rock Creek Hook-In in Lenexa, KS on February 27. Linda will be selling tickets at the January meeting also.

Becky Stevens asked for a volunteer to take over the responsibilities of Greeter. Jacqueline Jacobson volunteered.

Mary Limpus reported that the Farmer's House in Weston has opened an additional location at 4740 Rainbow, Kansas City, KS. David Cunningham has offered space for members to place their items for sale.

The meeting adjourned followed by Show and Tell. A special treat for members attending the meeting was the showing of the iMovie documenting the Guild's Activities in 2014. Lynette Beebe produced a very professional and in-depth review featuring Show and Tell items, Workshops, Surface Design Meetings, Creative Hand, and much more! The December program was our Christmas Party and gift exchange.
