COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Programs:

Susan Wyssmann reported today's program will be a scholarship report by Linda Stoker on coverlets.

June – scholarship report by Marcia Harvey on Tartan weaving

July – fabric dying demonstration stations

August – napkin exchange – The first set of napkins have been turned in by Betty Haberly.

September through November – member challenge presentations

Newsletter:

Lynette Beebe requested you let her know if you currently do not receive emails from her. She will add you to the e-mail distribution list.

Workshops:

Mary Limpus reported there are currently 13 signed up for the September Robyn Spady workshop. The workshop cost is based on 20 participants, so more attendees are needed. Cut off for registration and payment is July 19th. The question arose, "Can NON-MEMBERS attend?" NO, they must join the guild first and then are welcome to attend the workshop.

If we reach our attendance goal of 20, Robyn will present a ½ day program on Wednesday morning. You do NOT have to attend the Monday-Tuesday workshop to be eligible to attend the Wednesday lecture.

Any members may attend for a small fee.

Felting:

Judy Santner reported the next meeting is scheduled for Saturday May 28th, 10:30, at Sue Metzler's home in Bonner Springs. Please RSVP to Sue to receive further direction details.

Library:

No report.

KAWS (Kansas Alliance of Weavers and Spinners):

Lolly Buxton thanked all who attended KAWS. There were approximately 100 participants. Lawrence, KS will host the June 2-4, 2017 KAWS. The theme will be "Spinning the Colors, Weaving the Hues." 2018 KAWS will be in Manhattan, KS. Lolly explained that in the future the two Kansas City guilds will have separate responsibilities for hosting KAWS. Kansas City Weavers Guild will host in 2020. Kansas City Fiber Guild will host in 2024.

Creative Hand:

Barrie Mason reported the Creative Hand application is on the Kansas City Weaver's Guild website. The document can be filled in on-line, printed, and sent snail mail to Sandy Cahill. It must be postmarked by July 30th to receive the lower rate. Barrie asks that applicants read ALL the on-line Creative Hand documents. Note that a link has been added with pantone colors.

Mentoring:

No report.

Surface Design Study Group:

Lynette Beebe reported the next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday May 17th, 10:30-2:30, in Rose Room. Bring your own prepared cellulose fiber/fabric. Becky Stevens will be providing the dye. Room rental cost will be split between those present.

Scholarships:

Betty Haeberle reported there is money available. Please remember when applying, give the scholarship committee lead time to take your request to the board.

Studio Tours:

No report.

Community Service Project:

Jackie Kincaid read a letter prepared to be presented to the Kansas City Hospice House explaining our service project idea.

Other Discussions:

Carolyn Budd made a motion to change Article 6 Duties of the Officers, to include Historian in the duties of the 2nd Vice President. Lynette Beebe advised that there is a good deal of archival work that needs to be done. Wendy Boarders is currently housing several boxes of documents, photos, scrap books, and workshop samples. Haley Seba volunteered to sort, organize and make sense of the archives.

Cheryl Davis reminded us that Shawnee Indian Mission is looking for demonstrators for the first weekend of October. Demonstrators are allowed to sell goods.

Vonda Sager thanked those that stopped by her show in Brookside. With a special thank you to Judy and Karen for their help. Vonda has brochures for the 2nd Annual Joplin Arts Fest.

Linda Stoker was selling a few items from her studio.

The meeting adjourned with Show and Tell following.
