COMMITTEE REPORTS:

Programs:

Susan Wyssman reported that today's meeting is the members' challenge, something inspired by the sky. The December meeting will be our Holiday potluck party. If you want to participate in the gift exchange, bring a wrapped present with the fiber theme of something you can hang.

Newsletter:

Rebekaha Foote reported all ads in the newsletter will be eliminated after December. She will be starting fresh in January.

Workshops:

Mary Limpus reported she is waiting on a response from Robin Spady.

Scholarships:

Betty Haeberle reported that she has received another scholarship via email. She is awaiting a hard copy.

Felting:

Judy Santner reported the meeting will be held the last Saturday of the month at the Central Resource Library in Overland Park. (87th and Farley)

KAWS (Kansas Alliance of Weavers and Spinners):

Lolly Buxton reported the Midwest Weaver's Conference meets on odd number years. The 2019 conference will be at Grinnell College in Iowa.

Library:

Judy Santner suggested purchasing a book in the memory of Lenore Hammer. If you have book suggestions, contact Debbie Buddish.

Creative Hand:

Leesa Duby reported Creative Hand sale is Friday November 17th. If you do not have anything in the sale, come out and support the guild and bring guests!! Lessa needs volunteers for filling slots that have been cancelled. All volunteers will be compensated with the opportunity to shop early. Barrie Mason asks everyone to take postcards for advertising. Sandy Cahill asks everyone to like and share posts on Facebook and Instagram.

Community Service Project

Jackie Kincaid reported projects at the Hospice House have not been used much the past two months. The volunteer coordinator at the Hospice House says there has been an unusually low census lately. Jackie reminds everyone to continue to provide projects to keep the stash stocked.

Tapestry Study Group:

No Report.

Other Discussions:

- Table decorations for the December holiday potluck will be provided by Susan Wysmann, Janet Meddings, Debbie Buddish, Rebekah Foote, and Becky Gaskill.
- $5 guild cookbooks are still available.

New Business:

- There has been interest in starting a new study group for sewing with handwovens. Anyone is welcome to stay after the guild meeting today to have a preliminary discussion of details for this new study group.
- Sign up sheets were circulated for the following:
  - 1)interest in handwoven garment construction group
  - 2)interest in being a part of a focus group that would investigate possibility of having a few night guild meetings per year (2 or 3). These would be without a business meeting.
  - 3)interested in helping plan KAWS 2020
- Vote was taken for new officers:
  - Treasurer – Janet Meddings
  - Workshops – Marcia Harvey
  - Programs – Lynette Beebe and Jo Kleidis
- Motion was made by Rebekah Foote to accept the slate as presented. Seconded by Lolly Buxton.
- Jacqueline shared an email for Second Saturdays Handmade Market seeking vendors for their monthly shows in Prairie Village.
- Spaces are still available to sign up to supply refreshments.
- Barrie Mason will provide a survey to access the interests of our members for use by our own guild members.
- Lynette Beebe needs two volunteers to take guild photos and upload to Facebook.

The sky inspired Member Challenge followed with beautiful work presented. Winners Susan Wysmann, Kathryn Worley, and Judy Santner each received a gift certificate to Yarn Barn. Congratulations ladies.
